WHAT IS DPAC?

DPACs are the legislated parent voice at the school district level, representing the collective views of school parents' advisory councils in a school district.

DPACs advocate for family engagement in the education system and give input into the development of education policy and curricula.

WHAT DOES DPAC DO?

DPACs supports PACs and parents to engage with the school system by providing regular forums for the exchange of ideas to ensure that public education serves the best interest of all students.

Fundraising, Grants & Projects

DPAC applies every year for a gaming grant from the government which is used to support parent education in the district. PACs also apply for a gaming grant and fundraise to support their individual school/class projects, extra curricular activities, etc.

Proud supporters of SOGI 1 2 3

DPACs strive to foster a culture of acceptance, diversity and inclusion in our public schools. SOGI 1 2 3 helps educators make schools inclusive and safe for students of all sexual orientations and gender identities (SOGI).

Supporting Schools

Members of DPAC bring forward input from the various PACs to share with the Board of Education and the superintendent. It is important for every school PAC to have a DPAC representative to share the information from the meetings. DPAC builds support networks and broadens knowledge of current district priorities and activities.

Children benefit from family involvement!

Studies show that staying connected and involved in your child's education is closely related to child success in school. It is also a great way to get to know the kids and families in the school!
